

Consumer Satisfaction with Rubber and Home Appliances

KEYWORDS

Demand, supply, equilibrium.

A. Joseph Succour Jolly

Research Scholar , Department of Management Studies of Commerce at Asia e University

ABSTRACT In India, we are manufacturing tyres and tubes from rubber products. The vagaries of market arising from disequilibrium in supply and demand have serious implications on the net income of the produces of perennical crops compared to annual crops. The study reveals in total about how the customers were reacted towards Metro Tyres /Tubes. And it has been found with the help of various statistical tools the relationship among many attribution of the product and feelings of respondents. Most of them were influenced by the quality of the Metro Product. Even though the customers preference and satisfaction concepts look very complex this study had attempted to reveal more about the which will ultimately helpful to the manufactures, customers and readers to know more about the preference and feeling of the users toward Metro Rubber product. As a result, the market segment of Metro Rubber products can be widened.

How To Write An A+Research Paper

This chapter outlines the logical steps to writing good research paper. To achieve supreme excellence. Choose a topic which interests and challenges you. Your attitude towards the topic may well determine the among effort and enthusiasm you put into your research.

Focus on a limited aspect Eg. Narrow it down from "Religion" to "world Religion" to "Buddhism". Select a subject you can manage. A void subjects that are too technical, leaned, or specialized. A void topic that only a narrow range of source materials.

Find Information: For general or background information. Pay attention domain name extensions. Network solutions provides a link where you can what so of the other extensions stand for Be vary of the millions of personal home pages on the net. Learning how evaluate critically and to search effectively on can help you eliminate irrelevant sites and waste less of your time. To find books in the library use the OPAC Government publications, Guides, Reports, Magazines, Newspapers, Vertical Files. Subject specific software. Public and university libraries. Businesses, government agencies as well as contact knowledge per your community. Read and evaluate Bookmark your favorite Internet sites. Printout photocopies and takes notes of relevant information. State your thesis: Do some critical thinking and wrote your theses statement down in one sentence your thesis statement is like of your belief. The main portion of your essay will consist of arguments to support and defend this belief. Make a tentative outline: All points must relate to the same major Topic that your first mentioned in your capital Roman numeral.

Eg: I INTRODUCTION- (Brief comment leading into subject matter-Thesis statement on Shakespeare)

II Body- shakespeare's Early Life,Marriage, works, Later years

A.Early life in Stratford.

1. Shakespeare's family
 - a. shakespeare's father
 - i). Father's family life details
 - ii). Mother's family life details

b. Shakespeare's Works

- i). Tragedies
 - ii). Halmet
 - iii). Romeo and Juliet
- B.....
1.....
a.....
i).....

- ii)
- b.....
- 2.
- 3.

III.Conclusion

- A.**
1.**
2.**
B.**
C.**

A good outline in the most important step in writing a good paper. Check your outline to make sure that the point covered flow logically from one to the other. Include in your outline an INTRODUCTION, a BODY, and a CONCLUSION. Make the first outline tentative.

Organize your notes: Organize all the information you have gathered according to your outline. Critically analyze your research data. Best available sources, check for accuracy and verify that the information is factual, up-to-date. and correct optional vize should also b noted if they help to support your thesis . You must also be able to effectively communicate your thought, ideas, insights and research findings to others through written words as it reports, an essay, a research or term paper. Or through spoken words as in an oral or multimedia presentation with visual aids. Do not include any information that is not relevant to your topic, and do not include information that you do not understand. Make sure the information that you have noted is carefully recorded and in your own words, if possible. Devise your own method to organize your notes. One method may be to mark with a different color ink or use a to identity section in your outline.

Check one:

1. Is my thesis statement concise and clear?
2. Did I follow my outline? Did I miss anything?
3. Are my arguments presented in a logical sequence?
4. Are all sources properly cited to ensure that I am not plagiarizing?
5. Have I proved my thesis with strong supporting arguments?
6. Have I made my intention and points clear in the essay?
7. Any run-on or unfinished sentences?
8. Any spelling or grammatical errors?
9. Quotes accurate in source, spelling, and punctuation?
10. Have I supported my argument wit documented proof or examples?

Write your First Draft: Start with the first topic in your outline. Read all the relevant notes have gathered that have been made. eg. the capital Roman numeral. Summarize, paraphrase or quote directly for each idea you plant o use in your essay. Put all your note cards or paper in the order of your outline. E.g. IA, IB, IC, If using a word processor. If it is helpful to you, use a symbol such as “#” to mark the spot where you would like to check back later to edit paragraph. The unusual symbol will make it easy for you to fine the exact.

Type Final Paper: All formal reports or essays should be type-written and printed, preferably on a good quality printer. Proof read final paper carefully for spelling, punctuation, missing or duplicated words. Make the effort to ensure I final paper is clean, tidy, neat, and attractive. This gives you peace of mind and a chance check. “Is this the VERYBEST that I can do?”