1. Introduction

सदापकीर्तिर्हि महापवादैर्नाना विनोदैश्च विनीतकालः ।

जलातिभोश्चपलः खलश्च प्राणो प्रलीनो भरणीभजातः ॥

The meaning of Bharani comes from the root word "bhar," which means "to carry," "to bring," "to bear (something)," or "to bear children." The first meaning "to carry" is directly connected to the Shakti and the basis below of this nakshatra. The Shakti is "the power to carry things away," and the basis below is "to carry the soul to the world of the ancestors." Bharani energy likes to carry things away. Usually when we think of "carrying away" it refers to something that is taken away suddenly without notice. Examples of using this term would be someone stealing such as, "the thieves carried away the jewelry from the store," or kidnapping such as, "they carried away the beautiful girl," or losing something such as, "the river carried away our bag of belongings." This is one of the reasons why the ancients considered the disposition of this nakshatra to be fierce or severe. Bharani carries things away when we least expect it, causing separation anxiety, agony, sadness, or depression. Bharani causes unexpected change and transformation that is difficult or challenging "to bear." Just as when women have to endure the pain of childbirth through the vulva, we have to endure the metamorphosis of Bharani energy.

In modern astronomy, Bharani is comprised of three stars in the constellation of Aries: 35-Arietes, 39-Arietes, and 41-Arietes. Bharani is an extremely hot star, containing a tremendous amount of fire energy. In the Vedic tradition, there are several qualities of the fire element and Bharani is the sacred quality that is initially present when fire is first ignited. Those born under this star have the potential to rule due to their fire-burning energy. Bharani is extreme in nature, exploring any direction it chooses, either puritanical or sinful. Therefore, those born under this star oscillate between opposite ends of the spectrum. Bharani is the foundation of Venusan energy among the nakshatras giving it tremendous occult knowledge. The main symbol for this star is the yoni or female sexual organs, which signify creativity, sexuality and the cycle of birth and death. Just like the womb, Bharani is a sacred place of nurturing and growth with the power to quickly manifest. Bharani natives have a strong character and can withstand the transformations of life. Their naivet enables them to learn and gather information, but it may distract them from finishing what they begin. This nakshatra is one of the most enthusiastic and eager, yet can be challenging to understand.

Character and general events : Bharani born is not generally liked by all, in spite of the fact that he is pure hearted and does not like to harm anybody. When he wants to express his opinion in any matter he is just not bothered about the sentiments of others. He will not like to get anything for himself by buttering. Come what may, he is not ready to work against his consciousness whether he is according to others, right or wrong. Due to this attitude he has to face a lot of resistance and failures. He won't hesitate to spoil the relationship even with near and dear ones on small matters. But when he is convinced of his fault, when the opponent comes forward with folded hands, he will completely forget their enmity and start reciprocating sincerely. Tactful behavior is alien to him. He is far away from the state of obedience. Arrogance quite often leads him to miseries. Subordination is equal to death for him. When he was to bow to others, he becomes pensive. Advice and encouragement have no room in his mind.He will generally be having a good all-round knowledge. He has the capacity to go deep into any matter. Even though Bharani born will shine well in public life, he tends to face criticism and loss of wealth.He likes to command others and will always be eager to establish supremacy. He cannot march forward without hurdles and will have to face stiff competition, and in the run he quite often faces failures. For others, he may appear to be arrogant, but the truth is that he is pure hearted. His life is full of ups and downs. It is advisable that Bharani born should not involve in unnecessary arguments or competition. He will fight for certain principles which will ultimately lead him into trouble. He is fond of spreading rumors and wasting time by humors. As already mentioned above his life is full of ups and downs, there will not be any good or bad periods for long time. In short, he has to face a life of mixture of good and bad always. He is quite capable of looking after others but he needs some one to look after him. Ultimately his beneficiary and friends turn against him. He cannot establish permanent relationship with anyone.

Education, sources of earnings / profession : There is never a permanent good or bad time. After his 33 years of age there will be a positive change in his surroundings, in his life, and in his livelihood. He is fit for any type of work, particularly in administrative job, business, sports, music, art advertisement, automobile or restaurants. He can also be a good surgeon or a judge. He can be successful in the business of tobacco items or cultivation of tobacco. He will attain success in all undertakings provided he establishes or starts any activity by proceeding to the Eastern direction first and also if possible the place of activity or business may also be in the eastern side or eastern direction from his house.

Family life : Marriage comes around 27 years of age. They are fortunate in conjugal bliss. His companion will be expert in household administration and well behaved. He will cause the death of his father if birth is in the 1st or 2nd quarter of Bharani Nakshatra. His wife must save money for a rainy day, as he make some impulsive purchases, whether there is money left for other purposes or not. He loves his family. He dislikes to be away from his family members even for a day.

Health : While he does not take care of his health, there won't be any serious health problems. Main possible diseases are dental problem, diabetes and severe body pain, affections of brain, high fever, apoplexy, ring worms and malaria. Normally he is a very poor eater. He believes in the principle of 'eating to live and living to eat'. He is afraid of water and as is the thought, he should be careful while traveling through water, taking bath in rivers, oceans and ponds. Injury in the forehead and just around the eyes. Since he is a chain smoker he has to be careful about his lung.

5.Female Natives of Bharani Nakshatra

Physical features: She will have a very beautiful figure. White teeth but not in proper arrangement.

Character and general events: She will possess a clean, admirable and modest character. She respects her parents and elderly persons, but she does not relish suggestions from others and acts according to her own sweet will. She is bold and impulsive and over optimistic.

Education, sources of earning/ profession: She earns her own livelihood. She will be successful as a receptionist, guide or sales woman. She will not wait for opportunities to come but will go out and create opportunity to fulfill her desires. She may earn through sports activities.

Family Life: Marriage comes around her 23rd years of age. She will have an upper hand in all matters and she will behave like a commander. While she will enjoy full confidence, love and satisfaction from her husband, she is quite often troubled by her in-laws. She always speaks high of her own family. She will obey only such a man whom she can admire. In case she marries a simple man, who is lowly placed in life, she will over power her husband in all walks of life. As Bharani born females are a little aggressive, married partner should have patience and deal with them tactfully for avoiding daily friction in life.

Compatibility and Incompatibility: Revathi nakshatra symbolic of a female elephant is instinctively compatible with Bharani Nakshatra. Even Hasta, Swathi, Sravana and Purvaashada are compatible with Bharani nakshatra; if compatibility is judged on the basis of animal yonis they are guided by. As far as incompatibility is concerned Bharani Nakshatra is incompatible with birth stars guided by the signs of tiger and lion. Thus it is incompatible with Chitra, Dhanistha, Purvabhadrapada & Vishakha nakshatra.

6. Conclusion

Bharani Nakshatra shall be refrain from pointless arguments or competition. They will be forced to confront the life as a mixture of complexities always. They are quite capable of looking after others but needs someone to look after them. Ultimately his beneficiary and friends turn against him and could not establish permanent relationship with anyone. Use free will to avoid and accept the swift and cruel stars in view of their illicit or supportive effects specific occasions or circumstances. The star effects may depends upon Prakarma, Sanchita and Aagamai of both native and his parents which is connected with Aihika and Paratrika Karmas to a great extent. Surrender and submission of the Almighty with purity and reverence to tide over the crisis remain unaltered, ever in this world is also a karmic effect. The only choice and chance left with us against ill effects of star is to know the Malefic Nakshatra attributes from the very beginning and undertaking optional remedies as narrated in the Samhitas and Vedas to get rid of the life problems.
