Introduction:-Every person in this earth barring a few saints all want wealth. This is because wealth brings social security, enjoyments and all comforts of this world. It is seen that maximum number of people are poor or earn just sufficient to make a decent living. In fact the rich of the world are listed. This fact alone is enough to show how few people are really rich. Money has always had its importance in human life since ages unknown to the historians. Though it is a materialistic entity, are a reality and a necessity for everyone on this Earth. The importance of wealth is so much that even in Vedic astrology, it takes the second place, next to the health. While Vedic texts speak of 4 purushArthas(human aspirations), the second place goes to artha, the wealth. It is natural for anybody to inquire about one's wealth through astrology.

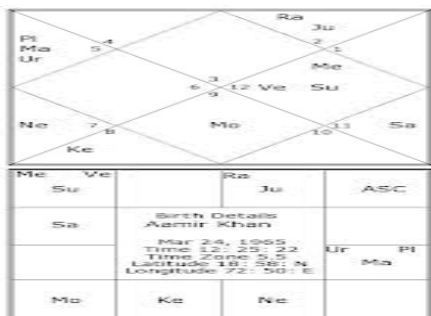

Main page :-Wealth is very important for everyone these days practically people follow different ways to become rich but one can be rich as it is written in its destiny an astrologer can easily judge that how much one can get by judging his/her horoscope. as in horoscope there are 12 houses out of which 2nd house governs or tells about one's wealth and 11th house which is house of income and earnings in a horoscope so basic principle which states wealth in one's life is combination between these 2 houses combination can be of different types

- (1) conjunction between lord of 11th and 2nd house.
- (2) aspect between lord of 11th and 2nd house
- (3) mutual exchange between lord of 2nd and 11th house.

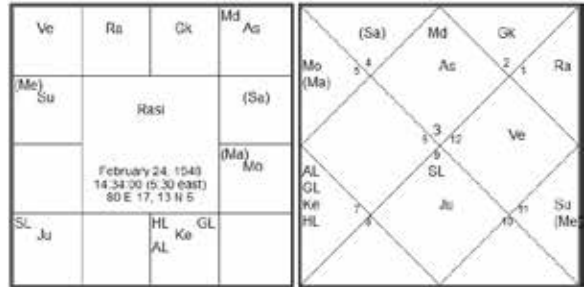

Wealth can be assumed by the strength of these two planets.

In the above chart of Rahul Gandhi the lord of 2nd Sun is in 11th from 2nd house.

In the above chart of Ameer Khan the 11th lord Sun is in 10th house and 9th lord Sani is in its own house forms Dhana Yoga. Well this is basic principle rest in horoscope trine houses 1, 5, 9 are known as Lakshmi sthana means house of wealth and prosperity 1st house is weak trine 5th house is stronger trine than 1st and 9th house is strongest out of the three. 9th house is also known as Bhaagya sthana. Relationship between these 3 houses also donate wealth. So in horoscope 5 houses are concerned with wealth in one's life different types of combination can arise between these 5 houses to indicate wealth.

As: 20 Ge-42 Su: 11 Aq-33-BK Mo: 6 Le-41-MK Ma (R): 2 Le-10-GK

Ra: 24 Ar-49-PK Ke: 24 Lu-49 HL: 12 Lu-21 GL: 14 Lu-03

In the above horoscope the Lagnadhipathi and Sukhadhipati situated in 9th and 5th lord in 10th and its higher house, The powerful Guru aspects Dhanadhipathi and Labhadhipathi, Hence a good Bhagya Dhana Yoga prevails.

Brihat Parasara Hora Sastra says that the Kendras are specifically the houses of happiness and the Trikonas are the houses of Wealth and Prosperity. This is because Kendras are ruled by Vishnu, the sustainer and Trikonas are governed by Lakshmi, the giver of prosperity. Thus, these houses shall appear prominently in the combinations of wealth. Along with it, 2nd house is the house of accumulated wealth and 11th house is the house of gains or income and thus, these houses are equally important in the matters of wealth. 12th signify the house of loss and its involvement in the combinations show loss of wealth. Some of the verses from chapter 41 of the above classics is appended herewith:-

Should Guru be in Putra Bhava identical with his own Rasi, as Budha is in Labha Bhava, the native will be very affluent. If a Rasi of Mars happens to be Putra Bhava with Mangala there in, while Sukra is in Labha Bhava, the native will become very affluent. If Karkataka happens to be Putra Bhava, containing Chandra therein, while Sani is in Labhs Bhava, the native will become very affluent. Should Surya be in Simha identical with Lagna and be yuti with, or receiving a Drishti from Mangala and Guru, one will be wealthy. Should Chandra be in Kataka identical with Lagna and be yuti with, or receiving a Drishti from Budha and Guru, one will be wealthy. Should Mangala be in Lagna identical with his own Rasi and be yuti with, or receiving a Drishti from Budha, Sukra and Sani, the native will be rich. Should Budh's rasi be Lagna with Budha therein and should Budha be yuti with, or receiving a Drishti from Sani and Guru, the native will be rich.

Bhavartha Ratnakara explains as : If the there's a parivartana between either the 2nd and 5th lords or the 2nd and 11th lords, the native earns a lot. This is also true for the placement of the 5th and 9th lords in their own houses. If the lords of 2nd and 11th are associated with lords of the 5th and 9th, Dhana yoga results. If the said planets (2nd and 11th) are associated with lords other than the 5th and 9th, no Dhana yoga results; however, the native does enjoy moderate wealth. There'll be loss of wealth if the 12th lord associates with the 2nd and 11th lords. It's always fortunate for Jupiter to associate with the 2nd lord and Mercury. If the 1st, 2nd and 11th lords are in their own houses, a Dhana yoga is formed. If the 2nd and 11th lords are in the lagna, a powerful Dhana yoga results

The Sanketanidhi explains that, When Rahu together with Mars, Saturn and Venus be placed in Virgo, The Native would become Wealthy. If debilitated planets placed in their own house of debilitation be placed in 11th, 10th 2nd and 3rd house from Lagna, the native would become a King.
