ABSTRACT

The Surya is, the father of our entire solar system, around which all planets revolves in the heaven. The power of light in the sky, the temperature of the earth, the power of expression of ideas and progress are represented by the Surya. His presence generates the "day" and absence creates the "night". The soul dwelling in human body and the power of rendering bodily services to others have also been signified by Surya - a royal planet of power and authority and administration. The Surya provides good results if placed in houses 3,6, 10 and 11 and the remaining other houses do not render a desired result. The Chandra, the Guru and the Kuja are the planets friendly to the Surya, where the Sani, Sukra, Rahu and Ketu are enemies. This research article contain the good and bad effects of Surya in 12 houses based on Bhrihusutra and other Indian classics.

Introduction

The Surya is said to signify the self (the soul) He also signifies the father of the person. This broadly means that, matters relating to the self and father are to be judged from the position of the Sun reckoned from the Ascendant. Power and authority are with the Surya. If the Surya is favourable and powerful in the horoscope being posited in Kendra and Trikona native will enjoy the above qualities and effects. If the Surya is weak in the horoscope being located in 6, 8 and 12th Bhavas from the lagna all the above aspects will be weak too and the results will be harmful.

This research article contain the good and bad effects of Surya in 12 houses based on Bhrihusutra and other Indian classics.

Surya in the First House or Ascendant.

Sage Bhrihu starts : "Aarogyam Bhavathi, Pitthaprakrithi, Netra Rogee, Ushnodaravaan " etc. and giving 21 sutras for Surya's position in the Lagna ending with "Subhadriste na doshaha".

1. If Surya is posited in the First House or Ascendant, the individual will enjoy good health.
2. He will be of bilious constitution and will suffer from diseases of the eye.
3. He will be wise and of good conduct.
4. He will have acidic stomach and will be bereft of knowledge and sense.
5. He will be highly intelligent, will speak less, and will wander away from his individual place.
6. He will be happy.
7. If Surya is in Aries (that is in his sign of exaltation) the individual gets name and fame.
8. If such Surya is aspected by benefics, the individual will become highly learned.
9. If Surya is in debilitation (that is, in the sign Libra), the individual will be dignified. 10. He will, however, be devoid of learning and power and be blind. These ill effects will not be felt, if Surya is aspected by benefics (Guru or Sukra).
11. If Surya be in Leo, or Leo Navamsha, the individual will acquire lordship over some territory.
12. If Surya be in Cancer, the individual will be knowledgeable.
13. He will, however, suffer from boils in the body.
14. If Surya be in Capricorn, the individual will suffer from heart disease.
15. If Surya be in Pisces, the individual will be subservient to women.
16. If Surya be in Virgo, the individual will be father of daughters only.
17. He will lose his wife and will be ungrateful.

18. The individual will enjoy good health if Surya be in his own sign Leo,

20. The individual will suffer from fever in his third year.
21. Such unfavourable effects will not be felt if Surya is aspected by benefics.

Varahamihira explains as -If Surya occupies the 1st house at a person's birth he will be valiant, obstinate, will have defective eyes and be cruel hearted. But if Aries be the ascendant, the person will earn himself but will suffer from eye disease. If Surya be in Leo, the person concerned will be night blind. If Libra be the ascendant, the individual will be blind and poor as well. If the ascendant be Cancer with Surya in it, the person concerned will have inflamed eyes.

As per Saravali -Surya be in the ascendant the individual will be lazy, of quick temper, proud, cruel, valiant and unforgiving. He will have cataract in his eyes if Surya be in Cancer. He will have defective eye sight, if Surya be in Aries in the ascendant. Surya in Leo will make the individual night blind. If Surya be in Libra, the individual will be poor and issueless.

In Chamatkara Chintamani -

The individual who has Surya in the ascendant has a good nose and body and a high forehead. He is troubled on account of his wife, children and family. He suffers from bilious diseases. He is always traveling. His wealth is not constant. He has ups and downs in this respect.

Surya in the Second House

Sage Bhrihu giving 11 sutras for Surya's position in the second house ending with "Saastragnaha gnaanavaan netra soukhyam raajayogascha". If Surya is in the second house, the individual will suffer from diseases of the mouth. In his 25th year he will incur wrath of Government and as a consequence will suffer loss of wealth. This will not happen if Surya is in Aries (that is, exalted) or in Leo (own sign). If Surya is associated with a malefic, the individual will get diseases of the eye, he will have little knowledge of ancient scriptures (Sastras) and will remain in ill health. If Surya is aspected by benefics the individual will be protected from the above evil effects and will become wealthy. If Surya combines with Budha the individual will stammer in speech. If the lord of the second house is posited in his sign of exaltation, the individual will talk succinctly and clearly, will have knowledge of ancient scriptures, will be learned, will enjoy good eye sight. This disposition will cause Raja yoga as a result of which individual will acquire name, fame and wealth.

Sri Varahamihira explains regard to effects of Surya in the second house is given below:-

The person concerned will be immensely rich but will be deprived of his wealth by a king and will suffer diseases in the face.

Saravali-The individual will possess cattle and servants. He will suffer from disease of the mouth. He will be bereft of fame and comforts. He will acquire wealth from the king or the thieves by questionable means.

Chamatkara Chintamani-The individual will be learned. He will possess cows, horses and elephants. He will incur expenditure on good causes. He will quarrel with members of his family on account of his wife. All his efforts to acquire wealth will go in vain. Note-It will be seen that in essence the effects given by the authors are the same as given by Bhrigu Sutras-In fact the views of the latter are more logical and meaningful.

Surya in the Third House

Sage Bhrigu giving 10 sutras for Surya's position in the third house starting "Buddhimaan anujarahithaha jyestanaasaha". If Surya is in the third house, the individual will be brother less (no younger brothers) and his elder brothers will not survive. In the 4th, 5th 8th and the 12th years he will suffer from bodily troubles. If Surya is associated with a malefic, the Native will do cruel deeds. He will have two mothers and will be valorous because when Surya alone will deny younger brothers vide Sutra 33, how can he with association of a malefic give two brothers). He will be a brave fighter. He will have a good reputation and will enjoy his wealth. If Surya is associated with a benefic, the brothers will become prosperous. If the lord of the third house is strong, the brother will be long lived. If Surya is associated with a malefic and is also aspected by a malefic the family will be destroyed. If Surya is aspected by a benefic (and has no malefic influence) there will be growth of family and the individual will be wealthy, will enjoy good life and will be happy.

In the 32nd year of his life he will get congenial environments. He will then become respected and successful, will be learned, attain a high position and will become valorous. He will not, however, be well off financially. If the lord of 4th house is strong (by being exalted) or is in his own sign and is posited in a quadrant (Kendra) or trine (Trikona house namely 1, 5 or 9), he will acquire high class conveyances. If the lord of the 4th is associated with or aspected by a malefic, or is placed in a bad house (3, 6, 8 or 12), then the individual will have low type of conveyance. He will have no land of his own and will live in other people's houses.

Sri Varahamihira-The person concerned will have no happiness and will be troubled in mind.
