Some of the narrators are of opinion that when it come as a beginning point of birth star, will make bad results for the relation of the life partner and same result have been attributed to the male also. As per fundamental texts, those who are undergoing Nakshatra Santhi (Meeting position of two Stars) of some Nakshastras at the birth are harmful either to the family members or the partner. This paper substantiate that the opinions are worthless and imprudent and all the natives who born in Moola Star are not harmful. Any adversity of a person will come to light by the potential of his Karma or good or bad deeds done in his previous birth, but not because of a planetary behavior of any third party person like wife, daughter in Law or Son in Law.
